

THE NINTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE RED MEN

Imperial Council of Well Known Order in Session Today at Odd Fellows' Hall; Second Session Tomorrow.

The ninth annual session of the Imperial Council of the New Mexico Red Men opened its meetings here this morning with a large attendance and an abundance of enthusiasm. A number of representatives from all over the territory are here, and all the grand officers are taking part in the ceremonies.

Several matters of importance to all Red Men will be brought before the conference today and tomorrow. Among the prominent members of the order who are present are the following: Great Sachem A. E. English of Dawson, Great Senior Sagamore W. D. Huff of Santa Rita, Great Junior Sagamore Charles L. Keppler of Albuquerque, Great Prophet John Molzenhaefer of Albuquerque, Great C. of R. Thomas Glancy of Klowes, Great K. of W. G. Woerner of Carlsbad, Great Representative Leon L. Godchaux of Deming, Chief Collector W. L. Shaw of Alamogordo, Great Sunape Steve Lee of Dawson, Great Mishenawa H. H. Hughes of Deming, Great Guard of Forest James English of Dawson. Other great chiefs present are Sam Allen of Santa Rita, J. E. Wilson of Albuquerque, George A. Durborow of Mogollon, Jessie L. Turner of Santa Rita and others.

After the appointment of many committees on branches of the work to be done, the session adjourned until tomorrow morning when further matters of importance are to be brought up. Although there are larger sessions on record than the present one, there are so many matters of importance to be attended to and so much enthusiasm among the members present that it is thought the present meeting will be more successful than usual.

FREE CONCERTS AT ROSENWALD STORE

Grand Opera Selection and New Popular Numbers Will Feature Evening Programs This Week.

With characteristic progressiveness, the management of the Rosenwald store has announced a special fair-week feature which should add greatly to the enjoyment of a host of Albuquereque visitors. Every evening this week, from 8 until 10 o'clock, visitors will be entertained in the pretty phonograph department on the third floor with a grand opera concert program, introducing selections in the world's most famous musical artists, together with some selected popular numbers.

These concerts will be under the direction of F. W. Einmire, formerly of the Aeolian company in New York and a recognized expert in his field. Mr. Einmire has selected his programs with the greatest care, choosing numbers for those who delight in the ultra-classical as well as for those who enjoy something in lighter vein.

The character of these concerts may be suggested by the statement that they will introduce numbers by such world-famous artists as Melba, Caruso, Plumb, Semple, Vale, de Gogorza, Constantine and other bright stars in the armament of grand opera. Selections from the new musical comedies, and brilliant band and orchestral numbers will be other notable features. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these concerts, and every effort will be made to provide for the comfort and pleasure of visitors.

STATE DENTISTRY BOARD IN SESSION

At Work Today Examining Prospective Dental Surgeons; Will Do Some Charity Work Tomorrow.

The New Mexico board of dental examiners is holding a meeting at the Commercial club today, and a class of three candidates is being examined. The board is all in attendance at this session, and several matters of importance will be taken up in the later sessions, the first ones being given up principally to the examination of the candidates for certification as registered dental surgeons for the state of New Mexico.

The board consists of F. E. Oline of Las Vegas, president; E. G. Alger of Alamogordo; L. E. Frein of Carlsbad; F. N. Brown of Roswell, and M. J. Moran of Deming, secretary.

A limited number of charity cases will be treated tomorrow afternoon at the office of Dr. Alger in the New Armory building before a clinic of candidates and board members. Those desiring dental work and unable to pay for the same should present themselves at that place tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

CHANGE IN TIME OF MATINEES

Afternoon Shows at Pastime to Be at 2:30 Hereafter—New Crystal at 3:30.

With the opening of the new Crystal theater today, Managers Scotti announce a new schedule of afternoon performances. Hereafter the matinee performance at the Pastime theater is to begin promptly at 2:30 instead of 3:30. The afternoon bill at the new Crystal will be started at 3:30. This arrangement makes it possible for those who desire to see the afternoon shows at both houses without conflict and in plenty of time to go home for supper.

TO ERRECT MONUMENT TO ADMIRAL SCHLEY

Movement on Foot in Baltimore to Have Congress Honor Hero of Santiago With $100,000 Statue.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 9.—Congress will be asked to erect a suitable memorial to Admiral Schley. A bill providing for an appropriation of $100,000 will be introduced by Senator Bayley immediately after congress reconvenes. All of the Maryland representatives are in favor of such a tribute in view of the great services the admiral rendered his country.

Senator Bayley, whose superb address in defense of Admiral Schley before the court of inquiry, was a masterpiece of forensic oratory, reached Washington yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Bayley from the Blue Mountains, where he has been spending several weeks. As Bayley was too fatigued from his journey and his illness to make a detailed statement, his first action on reaching his home was to write a letter of condolence to Mrs. Schley, expressing his sympathy with her in her hour of bereavement.

"I am too profoundly shocked at the death of Admiral Schley to make any lengthy statement," he said to the newspaper men. "I knew that his health had been failing, but the news of his death came to me as an overwhelming blow. Apart from the pride that I, as a Marylander, felt in the splendid record of Admiral Schley and his magnificent victory at Santiago, he had been for years my warm friend and when he demanded a court of inquiry to clear his name of the aspersions cast upon it, it was my privilege to speak in his defense. The Inquiry is over and the last word has been said. That last word was the verdict of the people who never for a moment wavered in their abiding faith in Admiral Schley."

Admiral Schley is immortal. His deeds have made for him a monument more lasting than marble or brass, for his name is engraved imperishably in the hearts of the American people. He needs no marble effig in the Hall of Fame. And yet it is my intention as soon as congress meets next December to introduce a bill providing $100,000 or more if necessary to erect in Washington a memorial that will express the love of the American people for their hero of Santiago.

MORTUARY.

Alonso Evans. The funeral services for the late Alonso Evans were held in French & Walker's parlors at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. S. E. Allie officiating. The funeral services were conducted by the local lodge of Odd Fellows, of which order the deceased was a member. Mrs. Evans, mother of the deceased, will return to the family home in Illinois this week, but the bereaved widow will continue to make her home here. Burial was in Fairview cemetery.

Cornelius Bennett. Word has been received here of the death of Cornelius Bennett, a pioneer settler of New Mexico and for many years a resident of Grant county. Mr. Bennett was an uncle of Pitt Ross of this city and leaves two daughters, Mrs. S. M. Ashenthaler and Mrs. J. M. Morel, both of Silver City. He was 80 years old and for the past generation had been probate judge of Grant county. Mr. Bennett was a prominent Mason and known to many all over the territory.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Return. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the thinnest of pretences, and his ready wit on one occasion at least turned his physical slimness to account in political combat. One day a party conservative opponent arose in the chamber and accused Sir Wilfrid of "fatiguing on the toll and sweat of the people." Laurier smiled and said sweetly:

"I leave this house to judge which of us two is the more exposed to that charge."—London Chronicle.
